Harp in the Mountains Summer Festival 2012
July 15 - 21, 2012

Put your harp in focus this summer!

This year's theme will be "Bach to the Future." While we explore music from four centuries, we will learn what it takes to be a harpist in the 21st century and we will learn how to improve the way we read, hear and play music. All of this plus our usual intense ensemble work, refining practice techniques and some good fun times too!

To reserve your spot at the Festival, complete and return the Festival Application along with your deposit check. Campers are encouraged to reserve early as places are limited.

Campers will need to bring their own harp to the Festival. No audition is required, although campers are advised that they will be doing a lot of harp playing! It is recommended that campers be at least 13 years old, although exceptions are possible. Contact Anne Sullivan with any questions: harpist@annesullivanharp.com.

The Festival is held at Hemlock Acres Campground in Coburn, PA. This is a private campground in central Pennsylvania, located 20 miles east of State College, home of Penn State University, approximately 3-4 hours travel from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, New York City and Washington, D.C.

Total fees for the Festival are $585.00, and include tuition, meals, sheet music and deluxe cabin accommodations.

There is a $100.00 discount (applied to the final balance) for registrations postmarked by April 15, 2012.

Currently, there are no scholarships available for this year.

If this should change, all campers will be notified immediately of application information.
